In this two-day seminar you will learn:

This two-day workshop enables practitioners to take PSE to a new level and demonstrates how to broaden their practice using this therapy. A critical component of the workshop is an open dialogue among practitioners sharing their experiences, asking questions, exchanging views and evaluating current testing methods and procedures.

Course outline:

- Learn the four main character types
- Identify a patient's central conflict
- Learn to use the organ test kit for diagnosis
- Learn to use test vials in the Reba Test Kit
- Additional patient diagnosis applications:
 - Focal infections
 - Intracellular acidity
 - Allergy and food sensitivity testing
 - Supplement compatibility
 - ANS dysfunctions

The seminar will include both the presentation of theoretical concepts as well as practical demonstrations. Therapists will be able to practice the procedures under guidance with many opportunities to share experiences and discuss questions.

Prerequisite:

- PSE Level I Seminar
- Tested a minimum of 30 patients
- Familiar with operations of the Reba test device

Heather Schofield
BSc., DHMHS, HD

has written, lectured and conducted seminars extensively across North America on PSE and assisted Drs. Reimar and Ulrike Banis and Dr. Craig Wagstaff respectively. Her passion for PSE makes her seminars lively and informative.

Reimar Banis
MD, ND

For over 30 years, Dr. Banis has lectured and written articles on foci, chakras and energy medicine. He is the originator of Psychosomatic Energetics (PSE), the creator of the accompanying Rubimed complex homeopathic remedies and, in conjunction with Dieter Jossner, created the Reba Test Device. Today he is recognized as one of the world's foremost authorities in energy medicine in Europe and North America.
